Director's Corner

27th Annual Write and Illustrate Your Own Book Contest

In 1990, Nancy Hensler started the first Write and Illustrate Your Own Book contest and it has been going strong ever since. This is an opportunity for budding young authors in Kindergarten through 6th grade to write and illustrate an original story. We have had children create picture books, chapter books, and graphic novels in the past and the contest winners have their books added to our permanent collection. Stop by the library to see a display of past winners and to pick up an information sheet.

- Deadline for entries is Saturday, October 21 at 5 pm
- Contest winners will be notified Friday, November 17
- Young Authors Gala will be held Wednesday, November 29 and is sponsored by the Friends of Huntingdon Valley Library

The guidelines and judging criteria are the same as last year:

- Participants can write a story by themselves or with a friend(s) in the same grade - only 1 entry per student.
- Entries must be original. The story can be on any subject.
- Use 8 1/2 x 11 inch paper only. The story can be typed or hand-written, and please number the pages.
- We bind the winning books and add them to the collection. For binding purposes, leave at least a 1 1/2 inch margin on both sides of each page, including the cover. Do not use staples - just leave the pages loose.
- Use non-smear markers or crayons for illustrations. Internet generated pictures are NOT permitted.
 - Original illustrations may be eligible for a separate award.
- Include a title page. This should include the title of the story, author/illustrator's name, age, grade, and school.
 - On a second page FOR LIBRARY USE ONLY, entries MUST include the author/illustrator's name, phone number, address, and email address.
- All the qualities of good writing (grammar, spelling, punctuation, and sentence structure) are important.

We will judge the works based on grammar, spelling, sentence structure, story organization, plot creativity, formatting, illustrations, and required information as outlined above. First, Second, Third, and Honorable Mention winners may be chosen in each grade. Awards will be given for Best Story (plot) and Most Creative (referring to format and hand drawn illustrations).

First place winning entries will be bound and added to the Library's permanent collection! First place winners will also receive a bound copy of their entry, courtesy of the Friends of Huntingdon Valley Library.

Copies of bound books may be ordered (and make great gifts). Copying of the text and cover to be bound is the responsibility of the writer. The cost per copy is $25.

Good Luck Distinguished Authors!
