Director's Corner

Aside from snow storms and Active Shooter Training, we enjoyed a very successful Lower Moreland Township Spring Egg Hunt in March. My thanks to Terri Heebner for organizing the stuffing of over 8,000 eggs (our teen volunteers are amazing), creating 9 age-appropriate prize baskets, and coordinating staff, volunteers, and a Township Commissioner to work at the event. Thank You, Jill! We are also thankful for Steve Woerner and his crew at Public Works for cordoning off the area and helping us Saturday morning to get the eggs and prizes up to the hunting grounds.

Pam and I also attended the Public Library Association conference in Philadelphia in March and heard many inspirational speakers and learned about exciting new trends. Staff and Board members took advantage of free exhibit passes and the West Trenton line to come down and browse the exhibit hall, picking up free books and other fun stuff from many different vendors.
