September in Library Land that means Library Card Sign-up Month!

Have a student going to Lower Moreland? Stop by and add a new Library Card to their back-to-school supplies.

We also start our fall programs in September. The calendar is out and full of fun stuff for all ages, including a new Chair Yoga and Medication class on Monday mornings. Let us know if you'd be interested in attending with an RSVP. We are also looking into offering Monday evening yoga with Theresa, Friday morning bridge play, and organizing a fun run for later this fall. I am also excited to announce the continuation of these popular programs: Socrates cafe, Mediare 101, AARP Driver Safety, and Meg's Adult Book Clubs. Last, but not least, we have two authors coming in December - Victor Brooks, a Lower Moreland graduate and professor at Villanova, and local poet Christine Gardiner.

I promise, this is my last Summer Reading post. But I have to share a few statistics. I'm a library director, it's what I do...

Adult Summer Reading had...

- 94 raffle entrees (58 from book reviews and 36 from business visits!)
- 10 local business partners/participants
- 3 raffle basket winners

Teen Summer Reading...

- Hours read: 1,223
- Registrants: 118, up 12 from last year!
- 3 raffle basket winners

Children's Summer Reading...

- Hours read: 2,370
- Registrants: 460 (fewer than 2016, but more than 2015)
- 12 raffle basket winners

We would love to hear your thoughts on this important annual program. Please take our Summer Reading Survey and share your feedback with us!

My thanks to Glynnis, Vanessa, Terri, Pam, and the entire team of staff and volunteers who planned ahead, worked hard, and gave us yet another awesome summer of fun!

I also want to thank Miryam R. and the rest of my Board of Trustees and Brian from Naked Brewing Co. for the successful Books & Brews event on Aug. 19. We had a great mix of Board members, staff, Friends, and patrons.

Here's Brian explaining one of the many craft beers we enjoyed:
