Director's Corner

We just survived a very, very busy week. We successfully upgraded and migrated our catalog software (Polaris) to the cloud!

Access the online catalog and "My Account" from our Web site: www.hvlibrary.org

You can also get into the 'general' catalog from this new link:

<http://mclinc.polarislibrary.com/polaris>

If you have any difficulty getting into the catalog, give us a call. It may be your web browser's cache needs a bit of cleaning.

Stay tuned for news on new features...

With our clean carpets, we will be asking everyone to help us keep them clean with new food rules:

To maintain a comfortable and clean environment for all patrons, you are welcome to enjoy snacks and drinks with covers throughout the Library, except at the Computers or AWE stations.

If you have a meal (from WaWa for example), we ask you to enjoy that

Yes you can!

eat & drink
in most areas

The computers are Food-Free. Please bring only covered drinks to the Library. Small snacks are welcome throughout, but meals and hot food need to be eaten in Anna's Corner, the hallway or Café. Enjoy and clean up, please.

in some areas

Here to read, study, or socialize? Socialize in the children's area, Anna's Corner, and the Café. Quiet study areas are near the Reference Department.

ask
we love finding answers

Did you come with questions? We have answers. We can help you with research, job hunting, or finding a fun book, movie, or CD.

welcome!

Help us make your Library a great place to visit by respecting the people around you. Start our Meetings: NOTE CHANGES...

- April 6 -
Montgomery County’s Pennypack Trail and an Unnatural History of the Pennypack Preserve with Dr. David Robertson, Executive Director, Pennypack Ecological Restoration Trust.

Though the Pennypack Trail winds through some of the most dramatic wooded scenery in Montgomery County, the landscape is hardly natural despite its deep forest cover. For centuries, European colonists and their descendants have modified the Pennypack Creek valley in ways that are sometimes obvious and sometimes subtle, but the evidence is apparent everywhere.

Dr. David Robertson, Executive Director of the Pennypack Ecological Restoration Trust, will lead a virtual tour of the trail and highlight features of the adjacent Pennypack Preserve that record man’s influence, including a disappearing island, artificial rapids, a long-forgotten distillery, and more.

Come a bit early for the Friends of the Library Appreciation Tea. In preparation for National Library Week, the staff and I will be baking goodies for the meeting!

- May 4 - Chris Collier, Co-Director of Renew Theatres
