Director's Corner

We are very excited to welcome young adult (YA) novelist Alex London for a SPECIAL Teen Reading Lounge Author Visit on Thursday, March 16 at 6:30 pm!

At this NO-STRESS event for Teens in grades 6-12, Alex London, author of Proxy and Guardian, will speak about the hopeful nature of YA dystopian literature, its impact on Teens, why it has remained popular, and how his novels were inspired by his experiences as a journalist in refugee camps.

Registration is required – Sign Up Today!

First 15 Teens who register online will receive a FREE copy of Proxy! Light refreshments will be served.

Glynnis Flores and her colleagues on the Carolyn Field Award Committee.

The 5 members of the Carolyn Field Award committee read 42 books written or illustrated by PA authors and illustrators. Each committee member was asked to submit their five (5) favorites. Thirteen (13) titles were discussed at the meeting to select the five (5) books for the award ballot. The ballot will be sent out to the Youth Services division of the Pennsylvania Library Association to select the Award Winner! Thank You to Glynnis and her cohort for their HOURS of reading in preparation for this meeting.

Upcoming Adult Programs:

How to be a Savvy Media Consumer in the Age of Advocacy Journalism and Fake News

Author talk with Larry Atkins on Tuesday, March 14 at 6:30 pm

RSVP Today!

About Skewed (from PenguinRandomHouse)

In a media landscape dominated by advocacy news networks pushing competing points of view, how can the average person uncover the truth about any particular issue? This book will show you how to separate the facts from the agenda-driven spin and selective presentation often used by such news sources as Fox and MSNBC. Read more...
