Director's Corner

The December calendar is ready and we are working hard on programs for 2017. New for December - the Friends will have the Book Room open some on Dec. 5, 6, and 8 for your winter shopping needs! In January, Pam organized an essential oils do-it-yourself workshop. In March, we are excited about the Friends' Settlement Music School program in honor of Women's History Month. In April, we have a four-part lecture with Betsy Anderson on the Art Nouveau movement. I'm always looking for ideas and leads for interesting Library programs, so feel free to pop in and share! Upcoming Events are listed below - mark your calendar today.

Have you heard? It's Annual Appeal Season at the Library!

Every dollar you give in response to the 2016 Annual Appeal will go towards hiring an architect to help us plan for interior renovations. Our goal is $30,000 and we have raised 10% so far!

Thank you so much for your generous and continued support of this lovely, comfortable, and well-used library.
