Director's Corner

I'm writing today's corner from my Aunt's house in Indiana, where I'm spending some time with my mother's family near where she grew up. My siblings and I lost her on December 30 after an accident and subsequent illness. My Christmas trip home took a sad turn, but I am thankful I could be there to say goodbye. I want to thank Pam and my amazing team for keeping everything running smoothly in my absence and for the support and understanding of my Board. Thank you.
