Director's Corner

Thanksgiving is just around the corner. Are you thankful for the Library? If so, please consider supporting the Huntingdon Valley Library Annual Appeal.

The Huntingdon Valley Library buys many thousands of new books, movies, and CDs each year. With support from the Richard Byler Charitable Trust, we can offer you weekly email alerts showcasing all of our newest stuff!

Maybe you would enjoy hearing about the many riveting bestsellers, exciting movies, new music, and spellbinding audiobooks almost the very moment they arrive at the library?

Whenever you spot something of interest, you'll be able to click instantly, reserve it, and check it out at your convenience. And of course, like everything else in the library, this service is free!

Wowbrary users give it rave reviews:

I love the new service ... This is an awesome site ...
It's a wonderful tool ... I think this is a great service ...
I like it a lot! ... Thanks for offering this service!

To get started and see what the emails look like, just visit www.wowbrary.org. You can quit the weekly emails any time you wish.

Our library is excited to offer this service to you! I hope you'll enjoy it and the library's many new books, movies and music.

Regards,
Sharon

Check out our new Staff Picks Display by the holds shelves.
(I can neither confirm nor deny, but there may be a friendly competition among staff to see whose picks are the most popular.)
