Director's Corner July 24, 2020

Dear Friends,

I hope everyone is having a good summer. The MCLINC library system turned on the overdue notices this week. Please do not worry if you have overdue items. We are not charging overdue fees at this time. Our outdoor book drop is open 24/7. Just drop your items off next time you are near the library. We are quarantining items for 72 hours before checking them in.

In other news, look for a changing schedule the week of August 3. We will continue to offer Contactless Pickup and add Grab and Go entrance times to the library schedule. More details on this new service will be available next week.

Please save the date: Monday, August 3. Friends of Huntingdon Valley Library are holding their very first Drive-up Mystery Book Sale to benefit the library. The Books will be pre-bagged, so what you get will be the mystery! Three books for $3. You will be able to choose between children's, historical fiction, mystery and romance bags. Sale will take place in the library courtyard. Details are in this newsletter. See you there!

Cheers,
Pam
