Director's Corner July 3, 2020

Dear Friends,

Summer fun starts at the library! I am pleased to announce the names of our teams for the Million Minute Challenge. The winning names as voted on by you are:

- Children: Dumbledore's Army
- Teen: All Booked Up
- Adult: Litwits

All Booked Up (Teen) are in the lead with 21,466 minutes read.

Dumbledore's Army (Children) are closing the gap with 16,243 minutes read.

Litwits (Adult) have 7,266 minutes and an as yet unnamed staff team has formed and read 4,545 minutes.

There is plenty of summer left. Just sign up via the Beanstack app or website and start reading. The app also has activities and raffle tickets you can enter to win amazing prizes!

The library will continue providing Contactless pickup appointments for requested items. At this time we are working in the library 4 days a week. The best way to contact us is via email hvl.circ@gmail.com, or you can leave a phone message and we will return your call as soon as possible. Staff is working as efficiently as possible to make sure we can get items into your hands safely.

Have a wonderful 4th of July. Stay safe out there.

Cheers,
Pam

Imagine Your Story Read by Your Librarians!

Do you like to write? Would you like to hear your story read, as theatrically as possible, by our Youth Services staff? Send it to us!

Submissions should be short stories and can be about anything you and can be about anything you choose (family-friendly, of course).

Submit your stories to Vanessa, Head of Youth Services, via email at hvlys@mclinc.org. Use the subject line "Imagine Your Story Submission." If you would like us to share who wrote the story, please include your first name and age. More detailed information can be found here.
