Director's Corner

May 14, 2021

Dear Friends,

It is fair to say that the CDC threw us a curve ball yesterday. Currently, not all library staff have been vaccinated. We respectfully ask that ALL patrons continue to wear masks and socially distance while inside the library.

The Library received a special donation this week from Barbara and Robert DeMartinis. Thanks to their generosity this Davis Meltzer gouache on illustration board is now hanging in our children's department.

Davis Paul Meltzer was born in 1930, in Huntingdon Valley, Pennsylvania, and attended school in Newtown,

Pennsylvania. Both his parents, the late Arthur Meltzer and Paulette Van Roekens, were highly respected fine art painters—and he inherited their great talent. During his career as a freelance artist he created stamps for the U.S. Postal Service, painted dozens of sci-fi book covers, worked for NASA, and worked as a scientific illustrator for 30 years at National Geographic. (Dangerous Minds website). Click here for more information about the artist.

Stop by the children's department and take a look, it is gorgeous.

Have a great week!
Pam
